Improper handwashing.
Bare hand contact with ready-to-eat food.
Not cleaning or sanitizing equipment.
Not cooking food adequately.
Not keeping food hot (135°F or above) or cold (41°F or below).
Sick food workers.
Not using safe (commercial) food sources.
Improperly cooling food.
Bare hand contact with ready-to-eat food.
Improper handwashing.
Tacoma-Pierce County Health Department
Healthy People in Healthy Communities